Western Alarm Mounts

Fear Korea-Like Conflict In Congo

By Dennis Neeld

LONDON (AP) — Western alarm mounted today as Communist support for Patrice Lumumba's political heirs in the Congo raised the fearful specter of a Korea-like war in the heart of Africa.

Banner newspaper headlines across Western Europe showed the concern at the Soviet Union's offer of "all possible assistance and support" to the Lumumbist government of Antoine Gizenga, controlling a large part of the northern Congo from headquarters in Stanleyville.

Fears were openly expressed that the U.N. attempt to prevent civil war in the Congo would collapse, that the Soviet Union and its Communist allies would supply Gizenga's forces, and that the United States and its allies would have to bulwark the Leopoldville government of President Joseph Kasavubu and Maj. Gen. Joseph (Continued On Page 11)

Congo Issue Blows On Embers Of Cold War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's attack on the United Nations operations in the Congo threatened today to touch off a new crisis in relations between Washington and Moscow at a time when they have shown hopeful improvement.

Such a crisis seems inevitable if the Soviet government forces to a showdown the threats and demands it has made as a result of the slaying of former Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba. The futures of both the Congo and the United Nations appeared to be at stake. The Congo now could rapidly become the arena of intensified East-West conflict; the United Nations could be virtually paralyzed as a peacekeeping organization.

The turbulent situation confronts the Kennedy administration with a crucial test of its diplomatic skill and policy resources when it is still less than a month old. It injects an element of deep uncertainty into the prospects for a meeting some time later this year between President Kennedy

PRESIDENT GOES ON AIR AT 6 P.M.

NEW YORK (AP) — All three major television networks plan live coverage of President Kennedy's news conference tonight.

The Columbia Broadcasting System, which earlier had said it would rebroadcast the 7 p.m. EST (6 p.m. CST) conference at a later hour, said Tuesday night it had changed its mind.

The network cited "overriding reason" for the change—the situation in the Congo following the death of ex-Premier Lumumba, and the announcement that Kennedy will make a major statement on the nation's economy.

The National and American broadcasting companies announced last week they would carry the half-hour conference on a live basis.

The news conference also will be carried live on NBC and ABC radio, and rebroadcast by the CBS radio network at 8:15 p.m.

CANCELS SKATING MEET — DAVOS, Switzerland (AP) — Dr. Jacob Koch, president of the International Skating Union, today proposed cancellation of next week's world figure skating championships in Prague because of the death of the U.S. team in the Brussels plane crash.

A decision was not expected before Thursday.

Koch said "it would be extremely difficult to go through with the championships in view of the importance of the American skaters."

Great Britain is building 15 new towns to free people and industry from hopelessly crowded cities.

Adlai Calls For Rally Behind UN

BULLETIN

By Max Harrelson
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson today denounced a Soviet Congo resolution as a "declaration of war on the United Nations and on the principle of international action on behalf of peace."

The U.S. delegate urged the U.N. Security Council to rally its strength to turn back what he called efforts to destroy the U.N. operations in the Congo.

WILD DISORDERS — UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Wild disorders broke out in the public gallery of the U.N. Security Council today as U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson blasted the Soviet Union for allegedly trying to wreck the United Nations.

It was the worst demonstration in the history of the U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Major Western powers led by the United States met a Soviet boycott of Dag Hammarskjold head-on today by rallying behind the secretary-general and warning the Soviets against trying to wreck the U.N. operation in the Congo.

A showdown shaped up in the international peace organization's gravest crisis since the Korean war as the Soviets put a resolution before the Security Council calling for (1) Hammarskjold's dismissal; (2) disarming of anti-Communist factions in the chaotic African republic and (3) withdrawal of all U.N. forces within a month.

Both the chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin were to address the council this evening.

The Soviets seized on the assassination of former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba to step up their campaign, launched last September by Soviet Premier Khrushchev in his table-thumping appearance before the United Nations, to revamp that organization in a Moscow mold.

The strongly-worded Soviet resolution accused Hammarskjold of being "an accomplice and organizer" of Lumumba's slaying while in the hands of his political enemies. (Continued On Page 11)

Egan Salvages Place—

Illinois Communities Ballot In Primaries

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Publicly-wise Paul Egan, colorful mayor of Aurora, salvaged a place Tuesday in April's election contest for mayor. But 9,253 votes separated him from a front-running ex-principal in that city's primary election.

The Aurora contest was only one of numerous primary elections around the state. Candidates, for mayor, city council and various township posts were nominated, and bond issues were voted on.

Ten candidates arrayed themselves before voters in Aurora's non-partisan contest. Retired principal Jay L. Hunter garnered 12,097 votes to Egan's 2,844. The rules said the top two vote-getters will be opponents in the April 4 runoff. Not far behind Egan was Albert D. McCoy, 39, a credit manager, who polled 2,213 votes. Joseph J. Zefran, 38, a trucking executive, was fourth with 2,069.

Egan, noted for lengthy controversies with his City Council and police chiefs, has held office eight years since his first election in 1953. He was re-elected in 1957.

Rockford voters gave their approval to a bond issue for a $2.2 million high school to house 1,500 pupils. The tally was 12,653 for to 9,818 against.

The proposal had lost twice earlier, with the result that nearly $1 million was trimmed from original plans for this referendum. Present plans call for an "austerity-style" school—limited to classrooms, a gymnasium and cafeteria.

In Alton's first mayoral primary under its new city manager form of government, incumbent Mayor T. W. Day and Councilman Clyde H. Wiseman were nominated as mayoral candidates. Day received 3,703 votes, Wiseman 1,432 and Harold E. Downey 1,222.

Galesburg nominated its incumbent Mayor Robert P. Cabene, a dentist, to face T. R. Churchill in the April 4 municipal election. Cabene, appointed to fill a vacancy several years ago, polled 3,691 votes; Churchill 3,637.

Peoria's first partisan municipal election in 10 years saw Robert G. Day, 47, a Republican attorney, nominated to face Democrat Joseph O. Malone, former mayor of Peoria. Day polled 8,031 votes to Albert Treadway's 2,734. Malone piled up 3,861 votes to Howard S. Beene's 2,405. It was the third time Malone had beaten Beene in a mayoral primary.

Freeport voters chose Mayor Glen F. Kunkle to run for his fourth consecutive four-year term. Kunkle received 1,319 votes on the Peoples Party ticket to Joseph A. Pizzolatto's 528. He will run against the Citizens Party's Joe D. Shelly, who won the nomination with 1,380 votes to A. J. Clarke's 1,238.

Illinois Schools Get $148,068 In Ford Grants

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Foundation announced today it has 9 state legislatures and 31 universities in a cooperative program to provide internships to 300 graduate students.

The states involved are California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Washington.

Under the program internships would be assigned by each legislature to work with standing and interim committees and research departments, and in offices of speakers, chief clerks, and other officials.

The interns mainly would be young lawyers, journalists and political scientists.

The foundation made grants totaling $1,081,428 to cover half the program's costs. The legislatures will provide the other half to implement the program in their states.

The details of the program for each state include:

Illinois: $148,068 grant to the University of Illinois in cooperation with Illinois Institute of Technology, Northwestern and the University of Chicago. With a legislative contribution of $86,468, from four to six interns a year for six years each will receive $450 a month for 9-12 months.

Indiana: $118,000 to Indiana University for a program with Butler, DePauw, and Valparaiso universities and the University of Notre Dame. The legislature's share is $67,000. Five interns a year will each receive $400 a month for 9-12 months, rising to $450 per month after three years.

The Ethiopian church, related to the Coptic church of Egypt, holds to the doctrine that Christ had a single nature instead of being both divine and human.

Teacher Tells Of Beating By St. Louis Youths

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A high school teacher at O'Fallon Tech in St. Louis told police he was severely beaten and kicked by four Negro youths late Tuesday at the school after he caught one going through a woman's purse.

The victim was John Orr, 45, who lives in Belleville, Ill., and teaches welding at O'Fallon.

Orr said that during a Valentine Day dance in the girl's gym he saw the youth "rummaging" through a purse. He said the boy put the purse in his waistband when he asked what he was doing with it and fled when Orr tried to take him to the principal's office.

About 30 minutes later Orr said he was going to his car in the school lot when the boy hailed him and said he wanted to talk to him. Orr said he waited and the youth hit him in the face with his fist. Three other youths then hit him and kicked him.

Orr was treated for scalp cuts and multiple bruises of the face and legs. Police said physicians wanted Orr to remain in the hospital but he refused.

Expect JFK To Discuss Congo, Aid To Jobless

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is reported planning to announce tonight a speedup in spending of some federal funds in a fresh effort to spur the lagging economy and reduce unemployment.

Informed officials said they understood the President intends to make such an announcement at his news conference scheduled for 7 p.m. EST. The conference will be broadcast live on nationwide television and radio.

On the international front, Kennedy faces questioning about his views on the crises in the Congo and in the United Nations resulting from the assassination of deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba. Heightening the tension are Soviet demands that the matter be dealt with on Soviet terms.

The domestic antirecession measures Kennedy is said to have decided upon would not require action by Congress.

There was no immediate word regarding details, but the Kennedy plans are reported to call for issuing new administrative orders to a few federal agencies for spending money faster than planned on some government programs.

Indications are that such speedier spending would not be on any massive scale. The idea is to pump some additional money into the economy, pending congressional consideration of the Kennedy legislative program, aimed at business recovery, easing of unemployment hardship and reduction of joblessness.

Administration officials and Democratic congressional leaders clearly are becoming increasingly concerned about the recession.

Both Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and House Speaker Sam Rayburn have indicated that mounting concern starts at the top, with Kennedy. The Cabinet officer and the speaker have told reporters that the President will have something to say about the situation at his meeting with newsmen.

NAME AIDE TO U.I. CHIEF

URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Charles E. Flynn, 48, today was named assistant to the president of the University of Illinois for institutional relations and development activities.

Flynn, who is director of public information, will retain administrative responsibility for that office in addition to being an assistant to President David D. Henry.

A native of DuQuoin, Flynn has been with the university since 1937.

Defense Wins Point—

Bar Photos Of Beaten Bodies

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP) — Chester Weger's lawyer won a major victory Tuesday in his fight to keep the 21-year-old defendant, charged with killing three women, from the electric chair.

Judge Leonard Hoffman barred the state from introducing photographs showing the bludgeoned bodies of the three victims in a shallow cave in Starved Rock State Park where they were found March 16, 1960.

The court upheld defense attorney John A. McNamara's contention that the grisly display of 25 photographs and 15 color slides would tend to prejudice the jury of seven women and five men against Weger.

But Judge Hoffman said that later he might permit State's Attorney Robert E. Richardson to introduce one picture of the slaying scene, provided Richardson establishes probative value.

Judge Hoffman viewed the photographs, some greatly enlarged, outside the presence of the jury. Some of the more than 100 spectators who overflowed the small courtroom gasped as the mural size pictures were brought into view.

Weger, who confessed the triple slaying after his arrest Nov. 17 but later repudiated the statement, showed no interest in the pictures. He stared in another direction as attorneys examined the exhibits and argued over whether they should be shown to the jury.

Weger, a kitchen helper at the park lodge when the three victims visited the park on a three-day holiday, is on trial for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Oetting, 50.

The other victims were Mrs. Robert Murphy, 47, and Mrs. Mildred Lindquist, 50. All lived in Riverside, a fashionable Chicago suburb.

The women, wives of Chicago business executives, disappeared March 14 after registering at the park lodge and changing into hiking clothes. Their beaten bodies were found two days later in lonely St. Louis Canyon, about two miles from the lodge.

Weger contends the confession he later repudiated was wrung from him under threats and after long hours of continuous questioning.

Among 73 Killed In Fiery Plane Crash

Famed Skaters Perish

NEW YORK (AP) — The famed Vinson-Owen mother-daughter figure skating family was killed today in a plane crash at Brussels, Belgium.

Killed were Laurence Owen, 16, of Winchester, Mass., who only last Sunday won the women's singles title in the North American competition at Philadelphia; her sister, Maribel, 20, and their mother, Maribel Vinson Owen who was their coach and a nine-time former U.S. champion.

Laurence only a few weeks previously had won the U.S. national title at Colorado Springs, Colo., where Maribel and her partner, Dudley Richards, 28, of Boston, had taken the national seniors pairs title.

Mrs. Owen—or Maribel as she was known around ice rinks—was third to Sonja Henie in the women's figure skating division of the 1932 Olympics.

A vivacious and talented individual, who did newspaper work, wrote magazine articles in addition to her interest in figure skating, Mrs. Owen served as figure skating expert for The Associated Press at the 1948 Olympic Games in St. Moritz, Switzerland; the 1952 games at Oslo, Norway; the 1956 games at Cortina D'Ampezzo in Italy, and the 1960 games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Fast in the mathematical computations of figure skating scoring—probably the most intricate scoring system in the world of sports—she was able to pinpoint winners long before the official announcements were made.

Her greatest pride was her figure skating children, and she achieved one of her ambitions when Laurence—pronounced "Lo-rance," with the accent on the second syllable—won the North American title last week. The next goal would have been the world championship, and then the Olympics.

Will Beer Return To State Fair?

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The question of whether beer will return to the Illinois State Fair probably will not be decided until Gov. Otto Kerner appoints a new State Fair Advisory Board, a state official said Tuesday.

Ralph Bradley, state agriculture director, said the nine-member board will play a major role in fashioning State Fair policies.

Incoming governors in the past have named their own fair advisory boards. Both Govs. Adlai E. Stevenson and William G. Stratton retained several members who served on boards that preceded their administrations.

Stratton banned beer at the fair in 1953 as a part of a program to establish a "family fair." Kerner has said he is undecided about whether beer should be returned to the exposition.

Illinois May Have To Borrow From Itself To Meet Its Bills

By CHARLES WHALEN
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Financial experts predict the state probably will have to borrow from itself in order to meet its bills during the next four months.

It would mean transferring funds, from such earmarked reserves as motor fuel taxes or World War II bonus account, to General Revenue.

But it may not be as easy as it appears since it would require an emergency act of the legislature accompanied by a two-thirds vote.

One state budget authority, who declined use of his name, says if money isn't transferred, state employees would face the prospect of payless paydays in May or June.

He estimates an additional $30 million will be required to ease the state through the current budget period ending June 30.

Gov. Otto Kerner has not revealed how he intends to meet the problem. However, in a talk to the Illinois Budgetary Commission a week ago, he hinted that borrowing is the solution to immediate needs. He said:

"Any obligations incurred for return of amounts transferred from special funds must be provided for."

A precedent for transferring funds to handle urgent financial needs occurred in 1953. The legislature at that time authorized the state treasurer to borrow from the General Revenue Fund so emergency relief payments could be maintained. The amount transferred was repaid later.

Budget authorities said it could work that way again — with the money borrowed to be returned from revenue supplied in the state's new budget for 1961-63.

One uncertainty is the view legislators might take, although some state officials don't see any choice.

"You don't shut down the state government," one department head said.

Many lawmakers in the past have strongly resisted attempts to use gas tax money for any but its earmarked purpose—highways.

Much of the state's present cash troubles are traced to the soaring costs of poor relief and other public aid programs.

A $64 million deficiency appropriation is pending in the legislature for running public aid until June 30. It will bring the two-year total for public assistance to $485 million.

Budget experts say the state's revenue balance, at the existing rate of depletion, will reach a low mark of about $4 million at the end of April.

The state is facing now an inability to match income with outgo.

Estimates are that in March the state will pay out $61.3 million from revenue for operating expenses and take in $53.9 million. In April the spread is expected to be greater — an estimated $59 million expenditures and $46.6 million income.

Eyewitnesses Describe Mishap

By Fred Cheval

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Fifty-four Americans, including the entire U.S. figure skating team perished today in the flaming crash of a Sabena Belgian Airlines jet. In all, the crash of the American-built Boeing 707 brought death to 73 persons. All but seven of the 61 passengers were Americans.

Disaster struck at 10:05 a.m. as the $5-million plane, its engines suddenly sounding odd, sought a landing in bright sunshine after a flight from New York.

The huge plane slammed to earth beside a woods three miles north of Brussels International Airport and went up in flames fed by fuel oil as the tanks exploded one by one.

All 61 passengers and the crew of 11 died. A Belgian farmer tilling his cabbage patch was struck and killed.

ILLINOISAN ON BOARD

NEW YORK (AP) — The list of passengers aboard the Sabena jet airliner which crashed at Brussels today included:

Medinah, Francisco C., 600 Garland Ave., Winnetka, Ill.

Mrs. Maribel Vinson Owen, 46, of Winchester, Mass., nine times the U.S. figure skating champion, was killed along with two daughters who were members of the current team. The girls were Laurence Owen, 16, and Maribel Owen, 20. Mrs. Owen last weekend had seen Laurence win the North American championships at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Owen and Coach Deane McKinnon of Lomita, Calif., were accompanying the 16-member U.S. team to world figure skating championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The team is the fifth major sports group wiped out by plane crashes in a dozen years, including soccer teams of Italy, Britain and Denmark. Sixteen members of the California Poly football team were killed in the crash of a chartered plane last Oct. 29 at Toledo, Ohio.

The Boeing crashed in a small pond and started burning almost at once. Fire engines previously alerted because of its erratic behavior screamed toward the scene, but arrived only in time to check the spread of fire.

"There were no survivors," a fire officer said.

Charred bodies were removed to a temporary morgue at the airport. A Belgian farm laborer lost a leg and was hospitalized.

In addition to the two Owen girls, the members of the U.S. skating team were Steffi Westerfield, Gregory Kelley and Bill and Laurie Hickox, all of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Bradley Lord and Dudley Richards of Boston; Donna Lee Carrier, Diane Sherbrooke and Roger Campbell of Los Angeles; Rhodie Michelson, Long Beach, Calif.

Caution Sign

Most truck drivers seem to be technically competent vehicle operators and conscientious observers of safety rules. Obviously, too, the truck owners have a big stake in keeping their trucks in safe condition and their drivers on work schedules that permit them to stay fit and alert.

Still there are exceptions on both sides. Neither all owners nor all drivers adhere to truck traffic safety rules as rigidly as good sense would appear to dictate. They quarrel over whose fault it is that lapses occasionally occur.

The truckers blame the union. They say that even if a particular driver accumulates a record of accidents and convictions, union protests make disciplinary action difficult or impossible.

There was an instance recently in which a truck slashed across a center highway line and struck a private car, seriously injuring its driver.

The truck driver in question had been discharged by his firm after an earlier accident, but had been reinstated when the union protested the firing. This time he was given a jail sentence.

The union argues in rebuttal that if truck driver violations were truly serious they would inevitably lose their licenses and that would rule them out. It is contended further that some employers exaggerate the offenses as an excuse to censor or discharge drivers they dislike for other reasons.

The outside onlooker plainly cannot judge fully the merit of these clashing contentions.

He can assert his one overriding concern: that both the truck owners and the union lean over backward in the direction of safety. No doubts about the fitness either of equipment or drivers should be resolved on the side of risk-taking.

If this kind of public responsibility is not shown by all truck owners, union leaders and rank-and-file drivers, then the matter will one day be taken out of their hands and a far stiffer control imposed on them all.

Jill-Of-All Trades Succeeds Old Handyman In Modern Life

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Whatever happened to the jack-of-all-trades? In our pioneer past practically every frontier settler had to battle the wilderness almost single-handed. He had to be a man of many talents to survive.

As time passed and our civilization grew more complex, the original pioneer American jack-of-all-trades tended to vanish from the scene. Men learned to specialize in a single craft or art.

But the tradition of the jack-of-all-trades endured and was kept alive by a new fellow on the scene—the general handy man.

Every community had at least one, and usually several. The handy man wasn't exactly looked up to by his neighbors. He was characteristically a rugged individualist who didn't like the idea of settling down to one job or one boss—or even one wife.

He was a colorful character who prided his own freedom, worked only when he wanted to, and often was strongly addicted to chawin' tobacco and bottled grain.

But whenever he dropped by and knocked on the back door, the general handy man was welcome in most households. They needed his skills. For a dollar or so, a meal or two, and maybe an old coat or pair of pants, he would out the lawn, carry out the ashes, beat the rugs, fix a leaky roof or mend a drain pipe.

Whatever chore had to be done, he could find a way to do it. And he had one unbeatable virtue—it didn't cost much to hire him. That old-fashioned type of handy man is almost impossible to find nowadays.

The new type of handy man is also difficult to find now—and he is a completely different kind of character. He is usually married, industrious, busy as a bee—and almost as businesslike as a banker. In fact he is a one-man industry.

The trouble is that when you want him in a hurry, he's often tied up on another job, and if he is free—well, his time isn't. An experienced general handy man can earn from $150 to $200

a week or more in some areas—

His high cost and unavailability when needed in an emergency has resulted in the rise of a completely new jack-of-all-trades—the suburban housewife.

Necessity has made her a jack-of-all-trades. In America's burgeoning suburbs today there are thousands of housewives who can outdo the pioneer mothers of yore in many ways.

They don't make soap or help fight off the Indians. But many of them can handle minor plumbing jobs, put up wallpaper, paint a house, fix a broken vacuum cleaner, rewire a floor lamp—and do 1,001 other things necessary to keep a home in order.

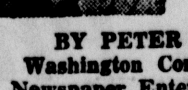

Smart husbands encourage these new jack-of-all-trades to learn as many skills as possible. And for a very good reason.

Kennedy Talks Show He's A Master of 'the Needle'

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The staff of Texas Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough's Freedom of Communications subcommittee, in compiling the transcript of all the presidential candidates' broadcasts in the last campaign—which it will publish in six volumes of about 1,000 pages each—has come across a number of prime examples of President Kennedy's wit and humor.

Supplementing the few samples given in a previous column, here are a few more gems to put in your Kennedy joke book:

In a Dallas speech, Kennedy referred to the Russian lead over the United States in the space race.

"The first satellite was called Sputnik, not Vanguard," he said. "The first country to place its emblem upon the moon was not the United States, but the Soviet Union. The first passenger to return safely from a trip to outer space were named Strelka, and Belka—not Rover, Fido or Checkers."

At Amarillo, just before the election, Kennedy pulled this one: "I understand that the vice president is arriving in Texas with a rescue squad—Nelson Rockefeller, the President of the United States, Henry Cabot Lodge—and now they are adding three new members to the team, who will advise him on how to win this election. They are Landon, Hoover and Dewey."

"We can't lose," Kennedy was probably at his best—or worst, if you are a Republican and are still reading at the Al Smith memorial dinner in New York, last Oct. 19. Here are a few quotes:

"Mr. Nixon, like the rest of us, has had his troubles in this campaign. At one point, even the Wall Street Journal was criticizing his tactics. This is like the L'Osservatore Romano criticizing the Pope."

"But I think the worst news of the Republicans this week was that Casey Stengel has been fired. It must show, perhaps, that experience does not count."

"On this matter of experience, I had announced earlier this year that, if successful, I would not consider contributions as a substitute for experience in appointing ambassadors. Even since I made that statement, I have not received a single cent from my father."

"One Of The Most Inspiring notes that was struck in the last 'Great Debate' was struck by the vice president in his very moving warning (to) the children of the nation and the candidates, against the use of profanity by presidents."

Kennedy Talks Show He's A Master of 'the Needle'

BY PETER EDSON

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The staff of Texas Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough's Freedom of Communications subcommittee, in compiling the transcript of all the presidential candidates' broadcasts in the last campaign—which it will publish in six volumes of about 1,000 pages each—has come across a number of prime examples of President Kennedy's wit and humor.

Supplementing the few samples given in a previous column, here are a few more gems to put in your Kennedy joke book:

In a Dallas speech, Kennedy referred to the Russian lead over the United States in the space race.

"The first satellite was called Sputnik, not Vanguard," he said. "The first country to place its emblem upon the moon was not the United States, but the Soviet Union. The first passenger to return safely from a trip to outer space were named Strelka, and Belka—not Rover, Fido or Checkers."

At Amarillo, just before the election, Kennedy pulled this one: "I understand that the vice president is arriving in Texas with a rescue squad—Nelson Rockefeller, the President of the United States, Henry Cabot Lodge—and now they are adding three new members to the team, who will advise him on how to win this election. They are Landon, Hoover and Dewey."

"We can't lose," Kennedy was probably at his best—or worst, if you are a Republican and are still reading at the Al Smith memorial dinner in New York, last Oct. 19. Here are a few quotes:

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg has confidence in the sweet reasonableness of man.

It's the basis for his hope that President Kennedy's forthcoming Labor-Management Advisory Council will accomplish something.

There are two arguments against it:

1. Labor and management represent two separate power forces, each big business in its own right and each out for all it can get.

2. The history of labor-management conferences in this country has not been good. There were two big ones: in 1919 and 1945. The results were dismal.

It might be expected that labor and management would reach happy compromises for the good of all. This would be the rule of reason.

But if reason ruled there would be no big strikes and no wars. The rule of reason would have required unions, management and nations to reach happy solutions through conference and compromise without resort to strength.

In the end, labor and management will have to work together, and make compromises, if the Communist pressure on this country becomes more intense, as it probably will.

The greatest handicap to Goldberg in getting unions and management to work together—and for Kennedy in getting Congress to act swiftly to improve the economy—is that the nation still seems to lack a sense of urgency.

Kennedy told Congress in his economic message Feb. 2 that he will issue an executive order creating his Labor-Management Advisory Committee.

It is to be composed of seven representatives of business, seven of labor, and seven others, including Goldberg and Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges, representing the public.

The committee could be an instrument for controlling prices and wages and, through them, inflation.

But the labor and management representatives on the President's committee will be under various pressures.

The management people will be anxious for greater productivity and lower costs. Costs include wages. Costs and productivity will also include automation. Automation involves replacing men with machines.

The union representatives will be under pressure from their members to save jobs, automation or not, and to get good wages.

In short, both sides will be under pressure from their own groups to get the greatest benefits for them.

Goldberg has shown unusual energy. Witness his five-state trip over the weekend to examine conditions in unemployment areas.

He is credited with a fast mind and a lot of balance and ideas. He and Hodges will alternate as chairmen of the committee.

Both men came up the hard way. Nothing they ever did is likely to be harder than making the Labor-Management Committee work.

When I was 20 I said I'd rather die than be an old lady of 40. And when I reached 40 I felt I could never face life after 50. But now that I'm 60 something's happened. I'm rather fascinated by the thought of reaching 80.

POSTMAN SENTENCED

CHATTANOOGA (AP)—A former substitute postman was sentenced to 60 days in federal prison and placed on two years' probation because he failed to go along with the theory that the mail must go through.

U.S. District Judge Leslie Barr sentenced Samuel A. Yoder, 39, after a large quantity of third and fourth class mail was found in the trunk of his car. The mail had been given to him for delivery.

Easter Seal Drive Affords You Chance to 'Feed Three'

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.,
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

On several occasions, I've commented on the remarkable quality of the letters I receive from readers. But, at this moment of writing, "my cup runneth over."

Some time ago, I asked for help in locating the quotation "He who giveth, giveth three." I was sure it was biblical but neither my clergymen friends nor my good wife could find it though we searched through all the standard books of reference. And I wanted very much to trace it to its source for the particular purpose of suggesting its message to the army of self-centered neurotics.

Well, from all over the continent I've gotten the information I sought. And more. "The quotation to which you referred," writes an Oklahoma, "is from James Russell Lowell's 'Vision of Sir Launfal' wherein Christ is depicted as saying:

"Not what we give, but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three—Himself, his hungry neighbor, and me."

"I learned many verses of this lovely poem over 50 years ago," says a Californian, "and can still quote them. Especially at the Christmas season, I think of them many times."

Well, it's sort of late to bring these inspiring verses as a Christmas thought to the "First Person Singular." But how about applying its lesson when you receive the Easter Seal appeal of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.? This non-profit organization has branches in every state, headquarters at 2023 West Ogden Ave., Chicago 12, Ill.

In its 235 treatment centers, 13 rehabilitation centers, 5 residential centers for in-patients, 27 sheltered workshops, 45 mobile units, 87 summer camps, 232 loan pools, 51 resident camps, 83 day camps and its other facilities, it treated 236,401 patients, most of them children, in the last year.

Its projects include research into, and practical treatment of, bone diseases and malformations, cerebral palsy, arthritis, childhood aphasia, speech disorders, multiple sclerosis and muscular dystrophies.

When you place the Easter Seal on your envelopes, the recipient of your letter will know you've helped more than three. For, beyond the trio of beneficiaries of the poem, there'll be the grateful parents of the handicapped youngster.

Lobster Rolls Are Yankee Hot Dogs

MAN-SIZE treat is an apt description of New England lobster rolls. They're a good meatless protein suggestion.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Along the New England seacoast lobster rolls are as popular as hot dogs. Ever eat one? If you have, you can understand. Today, with excellent canned lobster available, you don't have to live on the rockbound coast to enjoy them. Make good meatless protein dish for Lenten meals.

LOBSTER ROLLS
(Makes 1 dozen)
Yeast Rolls
1 package dry or 1 cake compressed yeast
1 cup lukewarm water
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups enriched corn meal
4 to 4 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 eggs
Poppy seed
Sesame seed

Soften yeast in lukewarm water (use warm water for dry yeast). Pour boiling water over butter, salt and sugar; stir occasionally until butter melts. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in corn meal, 2 cups flour and softened yeast. Add eggs and beat until smooth. Stir in enough more flour to make soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into ball; place in greased bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover and let rise until double in size, about 1 hour. Punch dough down; turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Cover

Lobster Filling
2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
2 cups chopped celery.
2 cups chopped canned or cooked lobster
Sliced dill pickle
Combine mayonnaise, mustard, salt, and pepper; add remaining ingredients and toss together.

Work Savers Are Tops In World of Collectors

Most women are savers of one kind or another. Some women are recipe savers. They continually cut out recipes they intend to try "some day." But while the exotic recipes pile up in a kitchen drawer the recipe saver usually goes right on cooking the same old meals in the same old way.

Some women are box and wrapper savers. They can't bear to throw away a box, a pretty bow, or a piece of gift wrapping paper. With them the wrapping is almost as important as the gift inside.

Some women save old clothes. Overhauling their wardrobes isn't a question of getting rid of the clothes they can no longer wear but of moving them from closet to attic trunk. They are convinced that someday they will find a use for these put-aside articles of clothing but usually all they do is provide a feast for

Hair Styling For Patients

This is a group of patients from Jacksonville State Hospital receiving free hair styling, shampoo and set through the courtesy of the Jacksonville Hairdressers Unit 27. Some twenty members of the organization have been busy during the past two months giving free service to patients at both local hospitals, nursing homes, Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School and Jacksonville State Hospital.

Slightly more than 200 patients have received free service from the local hairdressers whose membership includes nearly all beauty shops and schools in the city.

In conjunction with National Beauty Salon Week, currently in progress, the local unit will sponsor a style show at the Dunlap hotel Thursday evening starting at 7:30 o'clock. Merchants in Jacksonville will cooperate by displaying all types of clothing. Entertainment will also be provided. Funds received at the annual style show are used to pay for supplies used in the hospital and nursing home visits throughout the year.

Members of the local hairdressers unit use several of the larger beauty shops and many times visit the hospitals and nursing homes for those unable to be moved.

Unite In World Day Of Prayer At Roodhouse

ROODHOUSE—The World Day of Prayer, Feb. 17, will bring together worshippers on the day set aside to unite all Christians in a global bond of prayer. The service with the theme "Forward Through the Ages" will be held in Roodhouse in the First Baptist church from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 17, with the following churches cooperating: the Christian, Methodist, and the First Baptist churches.

This year marks the 75th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer. It is a significant day in the lives of Christians around the world. The service covers a 24 hour prayer vigil which spans the six continents.

The church bells will ring at 12 o'clock noon in Roodhouse on Feb. 17th serving as a reminder of the World Day of Prayer service. If any one finds it impossible to attend the 2:00 o'clock service, please pause for a moment to offer a prayer to God, the Father of us all.

Appropriate music will be played from the towers of the First Baptist church from 1:30 to 2:00 p.m. on Friday reminding all citizens of Roodhouse to go to the First Baptist church and be a part of this world-wide prayer observance. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

"Prayer changes people before it changes things; Prayer changes people when from the heart it springs; Prayer makes men Holy and full salvation brings; Prayer changes people and they change things."

Scott World Day Of Prayer Observance Service Friday

By Dorothy Sauer
(Winchester Correspondent)
(Telephone Pioneer 2-3439)

WINCHESTER—World Day of Prayer will be observed in Winchester this Friday with the Methodist church serving as the host church. Adult services will commence at 2:30 o'clock followed by the children's hour-long service at 3:45 p.m. Annually the United Church Women select Christian leaders in different lands to prepare the service and this, the 75th anniversary year, has its service based on the theme "Forward Through the Ages." It was prepared in the United States by Sue Weddell, former associate general secretary, Division of Foreign Missions, National Council of Churches.

Everyone can become a part of this fellowship, wherever he is this Friday, and the people of the Winchester community are invited to attend the local service. Much time and effort has gone into the planning and arranging of this service which will be assisted by representatives of the Winchester Methodist, Winchester Baptist, Winchester Christian, Glasgow Baptist, Glasgow Christian, Aalsey Baptist, and the Merritt Methodist.

Members of the planning committee for this year include Mrs. William Herring, Mrs. Lloyd G. Strouse, Mrs. Edward Baird, Mrs. Oscar Grindheim, Mrs. Frank Cowhick, Mrs. Maude Gillham, Mrs. Eva Funk and Mrs. Paul Garrison.

Adult Services
The program for the adult services, held from 2:30 until 3:30 has been announced as follows: organ prelude by Mrs. Albert Herring; greetings by Mrs. Lloyd Strouse; call to worship by Mrs. Edward Baird; "We Come in Joyful Remembrance," Miss Maude Gillham, assisted by Mrs. Eva Funk, Mrs. Paul Garrison, Mrs. Irma McCullough, Mrs. Ray Nelson, Mrs. Richard Shive, Mrs. Muri Helliwell, Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Leonard Plowman.

"We Come in Penitence and Dedication," Mrs. Robert Worrell, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. William Buckley, Miss Edith Young, Mrs. Dale Slater, Mrs. Albert Day, Mrs. May Day; "We Come in Glad Commitment," Mrs. Floyd Rolf; "We Come in Assurance and Hope," Mrs. LaVerne Jones.

School Program
A drama entitled, "With Tomorrow Yet to Come," under the direction of Mrs. Loretta Glossop, will be presented by Mrs. James Henderson as narrator, Mrs. James Sturgeon, Mrs. Wayne Bruns, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. Jack Lashmet, Mrs. Robert Melior, Mrs. Harold Crawford, Mrs. Everette L. McGlasson, Mrs. Harry Lair, Mrs. George Fogle, Mrs. Raymond Herring, and Mrs. Ronald Gilman. Ushers at the adult services will be Mrs. Paul Markillie, Mrs. Ed Wild, Miss Mary Coultas, and Miss Freida Balke.

For the first time a Children's World Day of Prayer service will be observed commencing at 3:45 p.m. It is hoped that as many of the children as possible will attend. Cars will be at the school at 3:30 p.m. to transport them to the host church, Mrs. Oscar Grindheim and Mrs. Lloyd G. Strouse are in charge of this service.

Six boys, representing the various churches, will conduct the hour long service, namely: Sam Herring, Bob Reid, Steve Wisdom, Larry Evans, Dan Watt and Steven Sealock. The grade school mixed chorus under the direction of their instructor, Mrs. Charlotte Heaton, will sing several selections accompanied at the organ by Miss Gloria Grindheim. Mrs. Robb Reub will present a flannelgraph story. Four girls, Claudia Flynn, Kay William, Sandra Kunzeman and Kathy Sandman, will serve as ushers attired in costumes from foreign lands.

As the people of Winchester and surrounding community attend these services they will know that millions of men, women and children in more than 22,000 American communities are holding special services and joining in the same prayer of thanksgiving, repentance and appeal for a peaceful world.

School Of Instruction Planned
The Pioneer Rebekah Lodge No. 51 in Winchester has completed plans for a School of Instruction to be held at the regular meeting on Friday evening, Feb. 17, of this week at 7:30 p.m. District Deputy Mrs. Donald Mullens of Bluffs will conduct the school. Noble Grand Mrs. Alta Smith will preside over the regular lodge session.

A social committee for that evening has been named and includes Mrs. P. E. Markillie, Mrs. C. M. Danner, Mrs. Roy Thompson, Mrs. Ed Campbell and Clarence Dynes.

Literature And Arts
The Literature and Arts Department of the Winchester Women's Club commenced its February meeting with a 12:30 o'clock luncheon at the First Christian Church and served by the CWF ladies of the church.

Mrs. Harry Rueter, chairman, presided over the business following and appointed a committee to elect a slate of officers for the ensuing year. Members on this committee included Mrs. L. Allan Watt, Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham and Mrs. Edward Wild. A report of the ways and means committee was heard which stated that a total of $57.50 had been received to date. A committee, consisting of Mrs. W. E. Harper, Miss Ruth Reeder, and Miss Lois Coulter, was appointed to select a project that the money collected can be used for.

Mrs. H. C. Montgomery gave the thought for the day on Abraham Lincoln and his faith in prayer. The guest speaker for the afternoon was Raymond Prye of Jacksonville, manager of the General Telephone Company. Mr. Prye showed a colored film entitled "Illinois Holiday." He gave a brief talk following the film stating that the Science of Electronics is making its greatest advancements in the telephone. The speaker stated that in twenty years a social security number will be given each person and that same number will be their personal telephone number. Another advancement in twenty years, Mr. Prye stated, will be the fact that a person can personally dial anyone in the world through a dialing system on their watch.

Mrs. Roy Phears played piano selections at the opening of the meeting and accompanied the group when they closed the meeting by singing "America."

Attend Meet In Pittsfield
Several Methodist persons from Winchester were in Pittsfield this past Saturday afternoon attending a Commissions Workshop for the chairmen of the various commissions in the Jacksonville District. A total of 276 persons registered for the meeting which was in charge of Dr. H. Russell Coultas of Jacksonville. The Inspirational Address was given by Dr. E. E. Stauffer of Galesburg, Ill.

Those from Winchester attending included Mrs. Paul E. Markillie, Mrs. William Wilsey, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Mrs. Lennis Williams, Wayne Bruns and Rev. Lloyd G. Strouse.

BONHAM CWF GROUP TO MEET THURSDAY
The Bonham CWF group of Central Christian Church, Mrs. Mildred Fairchild, leader, will meet on Thursday evening, Feb. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Verne Anderson, 511 West Beecher.

Winchester OES Prepares For Friends Night

WINCHESTER—Worthy matron and worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans, were in charge of the regular meeting of the Winchester Eastern Star held Monday evening in the Masonic Hall. Final plans were made for the observance of "Friend's Night" at the next meeting of the organization. A committee was appointed in charge and includes Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Mrs. Clarence Adams, Mrs. Paul Gillham, and Mrs. Randall Killebrew.

Following lodge refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Frederic Robinson, chairman, Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mrs. Courtney Dobson, and Mrs. William Castleberry.

World Day Of Prayer
The World Day of Prayer will be observed in the Bluffs community this Friday at 2:00 p.m. with the St. John's Lutheran church as host church. The program will be inter-denominational and the entire community is cordially invited to attend. The program for the hour-long service will be provided by the ladies of the Lutheran church and the Bluffs Methodist church.

MEET THE RAYMOND WATSON FAMILY

Names: Ray, Kathy, Kowwie, Karen, Elaine

As a candidate for the office of mayor, I want you to meet my family. We have lived in Jacksonville nine years. Jacksonville is our home. We have been active in our church, P.T.A. and school affairs, active also on the Passavant Hospital and Y.M.C.A. boards, and other civic groups.

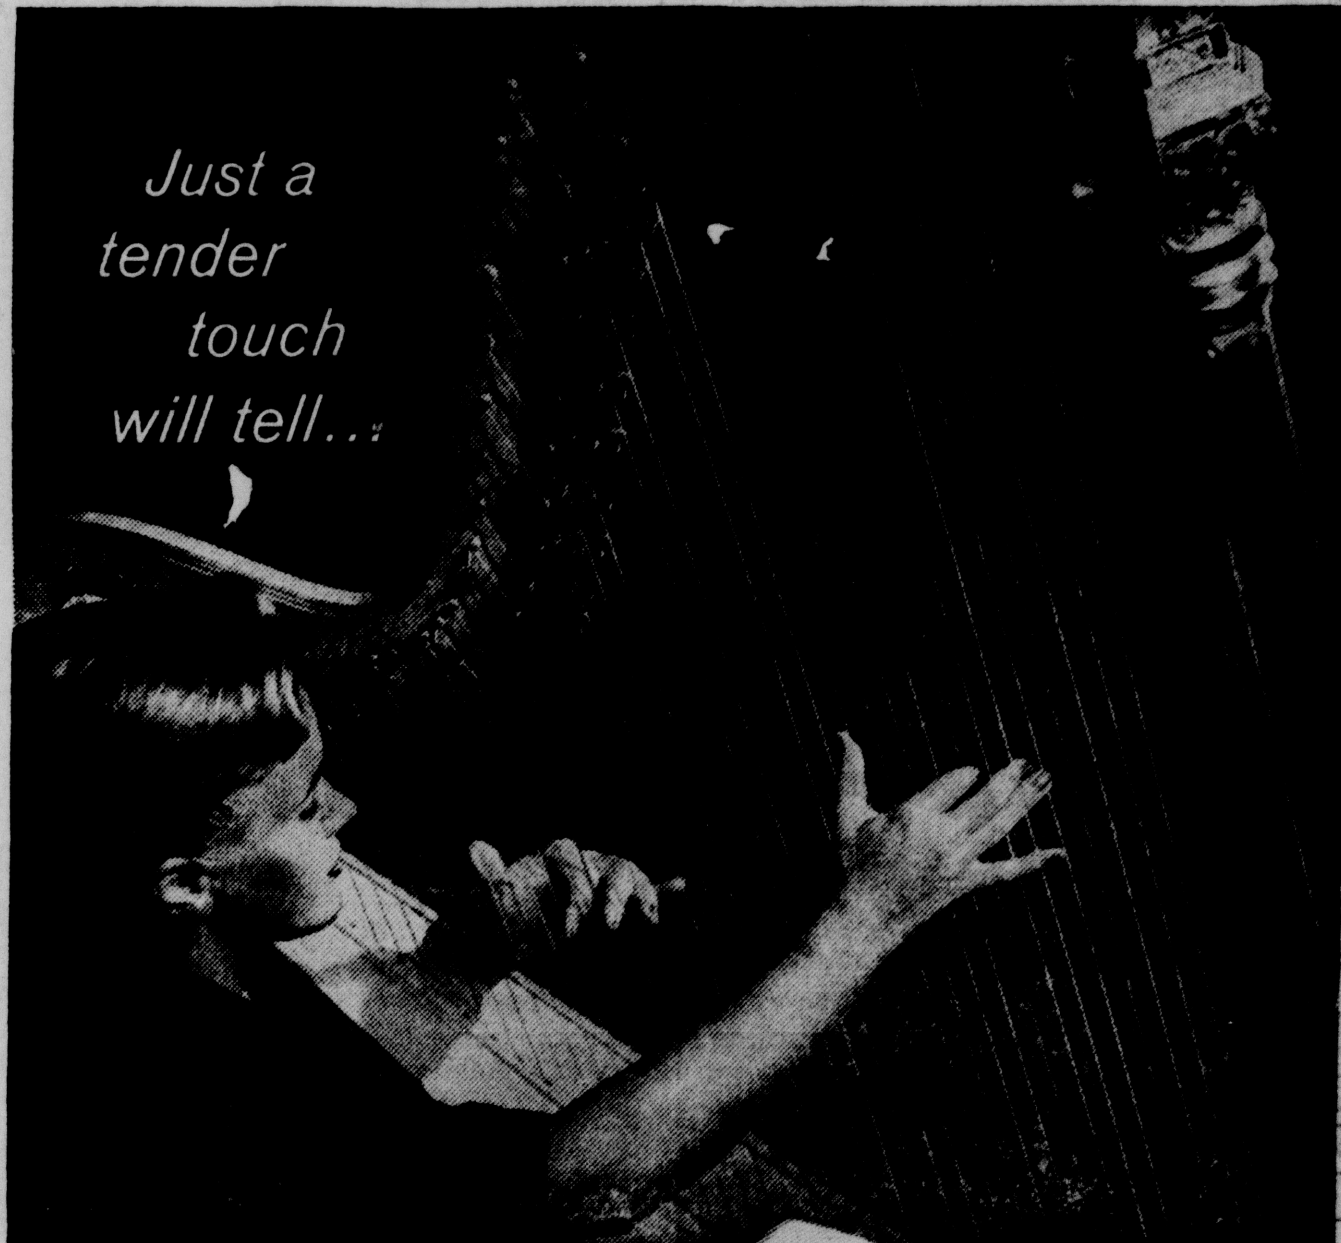

Being deeply interested in Jacksonville is why I am seeking the office of mayor. If elected I will work in harmony with all members of the administration for the good of all the people of Jacksonville.

SWINDLE PLAY AIDS TO SLAM

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Just a couple of weeks ago in discussing Sam Fry's latest book
I mentioned that he is a most aggressive bidder.
I now see him appearing as declarer at a slam contract that most players would not reach, but Sam
both bid it and made it.
Since Fred Karpin is not concerned with the bidding he does not point out that North did show up with a lot of stuff for his two no-trump response to Sam's two heart bid.
Fred does point out that Sam
was able to make a successful deceptive play from dummy.
The deception occurred at trick one and was made possible because the diamonds lay just right for
Sam. It doesn't look like much of a play, but it was effective.
Sam covered the jack with the queen. East produced the king and Sam won with his singleton ace.
Then he went over to dummy with the nine of clubs and tried the heart finesse. It lost to West's king and all West had to do to set Sam would be to lead a spade.

Now put yourself in West's position. After Sam's play of the diamond queen wouldn't you think that he would hold another diamond and wouldn't you try to cash your ten spot rather than lead a spade? Anyway, this West did and Sam was able to discard all dummy's spades on his hearts.

Ashland Plans World Prayer Day Pageant

ASHLAND—The 75th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday, Feb. 17, at 1:30 p.m. at the Ashland Church of Christ. A pageant, "Forward Through Ages" will be presented by women in costume.

The Baptist, Methodist and Church of God women are cooperating in this program. There will be baby sitting service at the church, and a social hour will follow in the basement.

A special 45-minute children's service in observance of the World Day of Prayer will be held after school on Friday, Feb. 17, at the Church of Christ. Cars will be at the school to bring all grade school age youth who wish to attend at the church. Mrs.
Jane Clemons is in charge, and several of the children will take part in the service.

Married At Church
Miss Alice Marie Bown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H.
Bown of Tallula, and James
Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas, of this city, were united in marriage Friday evening at 7 p.m. in the local Methodist church, with Rev. J. W. Jones, pastor, performing the single ring ceremony.

The bridegroom's grandmother,
Mrs. Audrey Edgar, and his aunt,
Mrs. Raymond Eilers, attended the couple.

The bridegroom is employed at the Ashland Farmer's Elevator, and they will reside west of this city about four miles out.

Observe Boys' Night

The Baptist Men's Fellowship observed "Boys' Night" Sunday evening, in the church basement.
A ham supper was enjoyed by the 45 men and boys present.

Group singing was led by Neal
Coyle, accompanied by Alf Anderson at the piano. After a short business meeting, Emil
"Dutch" Leonard, former big league pitcher, was introduced, as guest speaker.

Mr. Leonard of Auburn, told of his work with the Illinois Youth Commission since his retirement from major league baseball in 1956. He is a firm believer that any boy who is active in sports has little time to become a delinquency problem for the city or state in which he lives.

"Dutch" was an active player in organized baseball for 20 years.
Most of his time was spent with
Washington and the Chicago Cubs. Few pitchers match his lifetime record of 193 games won,
especially while playing with second-division clubs. He was best known for his knuckle ball pitch.

Announce Marriage
Mr. and Mrs. Giles Holmes, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Wanda, to Mitchell A. Niziolek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Niziolek of Chicago.

The couple was married in the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Niziolek, with Rev. Stanik performing the ceremony. The uncle and aunt were the attendants.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.
The couple will reside in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Imla Hewitt, Jr., and family of Evanston spent the weekend with their aunt, Miss Julia Hewitt.

visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bast, for several days, returned to his home in Chicago
last Friday.

Bill Cochran On Board Destroyer USS Swenson

William H. Cochran, serving in the Navy, is presently aboard the destroyer USS Swenson, which left the Mare Island Shipyards in California the latter part of January. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cochran, 404 West Michigan avenue and is an electronics technician.

The William H. Cochrans and son, Chris reside in Vallejo, Calif., and will move the first part of March to 14272 Hoover St., Westminster, Calif.

The USS Swenson recently completed a four million dollar overhaul, celebrated Open House Jan. 27th at Treasure Island, before heading out to sea. The Swenson was equipped with the latest weapons and instruments for anti-submarine warfare, including a helicopter landing platform on the ship's fantail.

The Ohio-Indiana lines passes through Harrison, Ohio, which was named for William Henry Harrison.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate earnings in 1960 as a whole ran a dead heat with 1959.

Results in the current January-February-March quarter also may show a photo finish with net profits of the last three months of 1960. But they probably will finish behind the strong showing of the first quarter of 1960.

Through the rest of 1961 after-tax earnings have a good chance of making a better year-to-year comparison with the like quarters of 1960, when net income sagged further in each three-month reporting period.

Cost cutting by many corporations helped brake the downturn by the end of last year. Strong continued climbing by some industries and many of the biggest companies cushioned the fall for the rest of the year and managed to keep the over-all corporate income even with or a bit ahead of a year ago.

Stock traders are keeping a particularly sharp eye on earnings statements just now because of the selective nature of the market stirred by cross currents of domestic and international uncertainties. Results will continue to zigzag almost daily as the rest of the corporations report on how they fared in 1960.

But the first 333 companies to report show 272 increased earnings over 1959, in many cases because strikes and other troubles had made 1959 bad for them; while 261 report declines from the previous year.

Combined the 533 report earnings of $10,561,982,000, for an increase of just 0.02 per cent over the $10,559,728,000 the same companies showed in 1959.

The 404 industrials in the list slipped behind by a cumulative 0.66 per cent, and the 47 railroads by 26.4 per cent. But utilities and communications firms advanced by 8.3 per cent.

Despite the so-so earnings showing, total cash dividend payments kept ahead of 1959, although the gain was much smaller than in other recent years.

Tax receipts from corporate profits disappointed the U. S. Treasury and sent it into the money market to borrow more cash, because the federal budget had been built on a prediction of pleasantly rising profits in 1960.

Hope for better profits by mid-1960 are built on expectations in many quarters that industrial production and sales will rise by then—and also on widespread cost paring, including automation, which if it isn't restoring profit margins on sales at least often is halting the fall.

Industries which for one reason or another managed to look better in 1960 than 1959 include oil, mining, rail equipment, motors, food, coal, tobacco and utilities.

The steel industry results were badly mixed. There were 10 higher, mostly big firms, and 19 lower.

Only slightly lower in profits were retail, chemicals, drugs and beverages.

More sizable downturns were reported by building materials, farm equipment, machinery and tools, electrical equipment, rubber metalworking, textiles, paper and railroads.

VACCINATED HERSELF — She just wanted to kiss her cousin's vaccination "to make it well." And Michelle Keith, 8, of Cleveland, Ohio, wound up with her own vaccination—or her nose. No harm done, except her parents are worried that she may be left with a scar on her face.

Common Cold, Uncommon Climate, Odd Fever Grab Health Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Common colds, uncommon climates and a strange fever in Singapore turn the focus on health:
What's in a Cold
The trouble with the common cold is that the only things common about it are the symptoms. Any of a handful of known viruses and bacteria can cause the common misery of the common cold.

But no cause—either bacteria or virus—has been identified for at least 80 per cent of the common sporadic diseases seen in adults, says Dr. Alfred S. Evans of the University of Wisconsin.

Bacteria are responsible for only some 5 to 7 per cent of respiratory diseases, he says in an article entitled, "Sneezes, Wheezes and Other Diseases." Flu viruses and adenoviruses, prevalent among military recruits, account for less than 13 per cent of such illness in adults.

Weather to Live
Your health, good or bad, may be made by the weather—in spite of coats, radiators, air-conditioning, medicine and all.

Researchers find strange correlations between climate and disease.

Colds reach a peak in winter, and in stormy climates with changing temperatures and pressures.

Digestive disorders are most frequent in hot climates and in hot summer months.

More diabetes is found in winter—and in winter insulin requirements increase.

Skin infections increase in summer, and in high temperature and humidity. Skin cancer is most prevalent in the sunny south.

Multiple sclerosis occurs most often in cool climates and in spring and fall weather changes.

Fever in Singapore
An epidemic of fever broke out in Singapore last summer, striking all races and ages.

Fever ran as high as 104 degrees. Immediate symptoms were headache, severe body aches and vomiting. Patients usually recovered in a week. But the disease had another strange effect: Patients broke out in patches of bleeding rash. Small blood vessels became more fragile, and there was a decrease in the blood's ability to clot.

YOUNG MIDDLE AGE
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—A University of Illinois professor says middle age begins at 28.

Thomas H. Cureton Jr., says that's the age at which the powers of the body start to decline if a person allows himself to go on living as usual.

Dr. Cureton, Jr., an instructor of physical education for men, said the youthful period is over at 14 for boys and 17 for girls, followed by adulthood which is a leveling off period.

He recommends that persons develop fitness programs to fill the demands of their life and enjoyment.

SONG WRITER

Dr. Brewster Higley, a pioneer Kansas physician, wrote the famous song "Home on the Range" in his cabin near Smith Center in 1871.

Three Boys Join Cub Scout Pack At Murrayville

MURRAYVILLE — Cub Scout Pack 159 of Woodson and Murrayville met Monday evening at the Legion Home in Woodson.

Colors were presented by Bobby Davenport and Mike McKean. The boys retired for inspection while the adults held the meeting. Plans were made for the Blue and Gold banquet which will be held Feb. 27.

There will be a Boy Scout Week display in a window in the business district.

Den one received the attendance award with Mrs. Lillian Henry, den mother.

Den three received the inspection award with Mrs. Janet Lawson, den mother.

Scouts receiving awards were Brad Lawson and Danny Thady receiving the Bear Badge.

David Irlam and Bobby Davenport received arrow awards.

Three new members were received. They are Gordon White, Ronnie Anders and Tony Gaines. Refreshments were served and the colors retired by Bobby Davenport and Mike McKean.

Philathea Class Holds Potluck In Roodhouse

ROODHOUSE — Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. Jesse V. Hawk, Sr., attended the monthly potluck meeting of the Della Philathea Class of the First Baptist church Thursday night. Presiding over the business was the president, Mrs. R. S. Bess. The meeting following the supper was opened with prayer by the teacher of the class, Mrs. W. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. Hawk, who gave the devotion, used as her topic, "A Look That Can Heal or Hurt."

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer given by all. Serving as chairman of the hostess committee was Mrs. Hal Patterson.

The remainder of the evening was spent making cancer dressings.

Wins Prize

R. F. Dill was selected as prize winner of the Heartland magazine contest on the subject, "The Man I Want for President." Mr. Dill's entry was submitted before the presidential election and read in part, "It is my considered judgment that John F. Kennedy in his youth, vigor and intelligence will surround himself with the best brains this generation has to offer and will till the soil in which will grow the answers of today, and of the future. The PAST has been harvested."

Mrs. Thelma C. Wilkinson of Roodhouse, Greene County Red Cross Fund chairman, has announced the 1961 fund campaign goal at $6600. Vice fund chairman is Mrs. Frank Greer of Greenville.

Mrs. Leta Ballard will serve as Roodhouse township chairman with the quota for that area set at $1300.

Reception Follows

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room after which Mr. and Mrs. Midkiff left on a short wedding trip and upon their return they will make their home at 905 West Exchange, Jerseyville.

Mrs. Midkiff is a graduate of the Carrollton Community Unit high school class of 1960 and studied at MacMurray College, Jacksonville. Midkiff is also a graduate of the Carrollton Community Unit high school and

Past Oracles Club Meets At White Hall

WHITE HALL—The Past Oracles Club of R.N.A. Camp No. 987 met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Ira Hudson with 14 members answering roll call.

Lucy Book, president, presided at the business meeting which opened with the pledge of allegiance and prayer by Chaplain Hudson.

Bunco was played with high prize going to Dorothy M. Young, bunco and floating to Lucy Book, low to Mae DeShasier and door to Lucy Linker.

Refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, heart shaped strawberry jello dessert and cookies, tea, coffee, nuts and mints were served. Mrs. Hudson was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sam Hudson and Mrs. Ivamae Dickerson and Miss Dorothy M. Young.

Miss Kell, Carrollton, James Midkiff's Bride

CARROLLTON—In a wedding which took place Friday evening, Feb. 10 in the First Baptist church Miss Patricia Ann Kell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Bridgewater Jr. became the bride of James E. Midkiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Midkiff, Sr.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Darwin Rolens, pastor of the church before an altar formed of greenery and baskets of white gladioli.

The soloist for the service was Miss Betty Roth of Carrollton with Miss Nita Ford playing the organ accompaniment and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John L. Kell, Carrollton. She wore a ballerina length gown of slipper satin fashioned with a fitted Chantilly lace jacket. Her finger tip veil was secured by a rhinestone tiara. She wore a strand of pearls a gift of the groom and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Patricia Ann Kell of Carrollton, wore a street length dress of shell pink, matching hat and other accessories in the same shade. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and carnations.

The best man was Donald Rhoades of Carrollton and the ushers were Jack Early and Howard Shaw, both of Carrollton.

Mrs. S. Smith's Son To Lead Historical Meet

ROODHOUSE — Mrs. S. Lee Smith has received word that her son, Dr. Hale Smith, professor of anthropology and archeology at the Florida State University at Tallahassee and author of many articles on archeology, will speak before the assembly of the National Trust for Historical Preservation and guests at a meeting to be held at the Shadow on the Teche, New Beria, La.

Three sessions will be held: one on Feb. 25; another on May 20; and the third on Oct. 28. Dr. Smith will serve as a speaker for two of the sessions. Dr. Smith, also director of the Florida State Museum and chairman of the Southeast division of museums, states that registration fees will be $20 each and guests may attend the conference dinners by tickets only. Mrs. Smith has an invitation to attend.

Woman's Club Meeting

Mrs. Roy Burrus, reporter for the Roodhouse-White Hall Junior Woman's Club, states that a regular meeting of the Junior Club will be held Tuesday evening, Feb. 21 at 7:30 in the Roodhouse Woman's Club room.

On the following evening, Feb. 22, at 8:00 o'clock, the General Federation of Woman's Clubs sewing contest for this area will be held in the Roodhouse Club room. The contest is sponsored by the Roodhouse-White Hall Junior Woman's Club and the Roodhouse

Woman's Club. Two winners will be named with each receiving a prize from the Vogue Pattern Co. Participating will be Roodhouse and White Hall high school students. The public is invited to attend on the evening of Feb. 23.

How To Lick 'Objective' Exams

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D., with HARRY KARN

Let's continue our chat about how to prepare for tests so that they become pleasant rather than harrowing experiences.

We talked about essay exams, the kind in which you are asked to remember and write out the answers to questions. Many of the same methods of preparation apply to what is known as the "objective" exam.

This is the kind that merely requires you to recognize and mark the answer.

You should prepare for objective exams by a general review, as you do with the essay type. But remember this difference:

The objective test usually requires review with a greater emphasis on specific statements.

Start by skimming through your material. Keep asking yourself: "What sort of question is the teacher likely to ask about this point, this character, this date?"

You practice baseball by throwing and hitting balls. Prepare for exams by tossing yourself questions and hitting them back.

If the exam is one covering an entire book, it is good practice to scan the index. Each item can be used as a cue to remind you of specific facts. When you hit an item that doesn't ring a bell, you have touched a short in your knowledge. Repair it so the bells ring the next time.

Some students pile up facts in their heads the way junk yards pile up old car bodies. In the junk yard, where everything is stamped together in gigantic piles and shipped off to market, this habit is all right. In education, it leads to chaos.

The best way is to fit each piece of information into its logical place in the general pattern of your knowledge of the subject. Relate it in some way to other facts and ideas. If you do this, you are prepared for tests of either ability to recognize or ability to remember correct answers.

Tests On Math

In certain ways the preparation for tests in math varies from the procedure we've been talking about.

You are confronted in the math test with a mixed series of problems or exercises. They are not necessarily arranged in the same order in which they were presented in the textbook.

You must keep in mind the processes to be used, but you also must understand the principles involved.

You must be able to SELECT the proper set of principles to be used in the solution of a given problem.

Your review for such a test

could involve the following steps:

Step One. Go through the materials to be covered and find the principles that apply. Each time you come to a principle, ask yourself: "To what type of problem can this be applied?" And: "How would I recognize the possibility of using this principle to solve a problem?"

Step Two. Go through all the exercises and pick out problems with which to practice. As you attack each problem, ask yourself: "What kind of problem is this?" "What principles could be applied in working it?" "How would I recognize this?" "Exactly what is considered to be the solution?"

If your first excursion through the sets of exercises proves rough, if you have to refer too often to the author's solved examples, run through Step One and Step Two again.

We didn't promise to do away entirely with the labor of learning. We promised to organize it and make it easier and show you how to improve. And after all, which is simpler—going through Steps One and Two a half dozen times, or going through the same math class twice?

We have stressed in these chats time and again how important it is in learning to be exact.

Certainly no field requires precision more than science does. So many of the ideas in science are expressed in numbers and must be understood exactly.

In chemistry, you must know, without the slightest doubt, the meaning of molecular weight and how to balance an equation.

In physics the laws must be understood in terms of numerical relationship. The same holds true in many areas of the other sciences.

Tests On Science

When you prepare for science tests, try the following:

1. Search through your book and your notes for concepts, laws, relationships which need to be understood in terms of numbers. Think about these ideas until you are able to use them in working problems without hesitation, without guesswork.

2. Memorize significant laws and principles.

3. Make up a list of questions to ask yourself. Form these questions on the basis of questions asked on previous exams. Get them from exercises at the ends of chapters. Shape them from hints given in lectures.

4. Answer these questions, either writing them down or reciting them to yourself.

5. Look for terms the teacher may ask you to define. Study a term until you know exactly the sort of situation in which it could be used. Picture an object or a situation to which the term is related in some important way.

6. Form a pattern for remembering any long lists of names or terms. It is helpful to employ some memory scheme such as caricaturing or exaggerating. But the main thing is to have some system which works for you. The test of the system, naturally, is whether it actually does help you remember.

In this and previous chapters we have talked a lot about how to get ready to take examinations. But getting ready is only part of the chore. Do you know how to take an examination?

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE

By Henry Farrell

XX.
Del met his gaze across the table, pleased that she had managed to capture his interest so completely. "Well, it all started at one of those big parties, you know one of those big Hollywood parties where there are a lot of movie people. It was at some big producer's house, there was a lot to drink and all that. Anyway, Jane Hudson started right in to make a fool of herself—like she always did—she was famous for it—only this time, well I guess she just decided she'd had all she could stand. They said she grabbed her right there in front of everybody—that Blanche grabbed Jane—and she told her to go and get her coat because they were going home."

"There was a big squabble between the two of them, and then finally when they got out of the house and out to the car, it started all over again. Jane was bound she was going to drive home, and Blanche was bound she wasn't. In the end, though, Blanche gave in—I guess just because she was so embarrassed and anxious to get out of there. And so—the next thing anybody heard the next morning there had been this awful accident, and Blanche was crippled up in the hospital."

"Well, then—it was just an accident."

"Well, yes, but then the real story began to leak out. Where it happened was right at the front gates to their own yard—a pair of big fancy iron things, they said they were, in front of the driveway. Nobody ever said what happened in so many words, but there wasn't much doubt about it. Blanche got out of the car to work this trick gadget that made the gate open, and Jane Hudson tried to run her down and kill her. She just waited until Blanche was standing in front of those gates and she stepped down on the gas and drove right into her. It gives me the shivers just to think about it."

Edwin stared at her in doubt and horror.

"But that isn't the worst," Del rattled on. "After she hit Blanche, she just jumped out of the car and ran off. Imagine that; it's a wonder the way the car was smashed up she wasn't killed herself. And I guess she would have been except she was so drunk. You know how drunk people never get hurt in a wreck because they're all relaxed? Anyway, she must have known Blanche was hurt bad and she went off and left her there to die. Her own sister!"

"Later on they found her in some cheap hotel downtown, drunk and out of her head. They tried to smooth it over by saying she had gone into shock and didn't remember anything. They said she didn't mean to hurt Blanche, that her foot just slipped on the gas. But there was some on the inside who seemed to think different. Everybody knew Jane Hudson was jealous of Blanche and was always trying to mess things up for her."

Del paused, shook her head. "But the awful part is that Blanche Hudson would have died, too, right there in the street like a dog, only she managed to crawl up onto a neighbor's porch and get help."

Edwin lowered his gaze to his plate. "It's probably just another studio story," he said. "In those days they made a big scandal out of everything. I even heard they had to put her away for a while after the accident." Del persisted, "This Jane Hudson you're so crazy about?"

"Crazy about?" Edwin looked up, angered. "I don't believe it, that's all."

Del's gaze came up sharply, striking hard against his. "You're going to see a woman like that again? A woman who'd try to kill her own sister?"

Edwin began to laugh then.

Across from him, Del watched with growing alarm.

"Edwin?"

He shook his head, letting the laughter die out of him slowly, wiping the tears from his eyes.

"Don't worry," he said, his voice still unsteady with the remains of his hysterical mirth. "I'm not going to see her again. You're right, you're absolutely right, you shouldn't hang out with deadly types—not the quick-killing kind. Give me that old slow poison every time, because blood's a lot thicker than arsenic."

"Did Blanche Hudson show herself while you were there?" There hadn't been even so much as a sound to indicate her presence.

And then there flashed into his mind the empty silver frame on the mantel and the ruined photograph in the piano bench.

"She was an awful rich woman," Del was saying. "Blanche Hudson really made a pile. And now—I guess they're just closed away together up there in that big house."

Edwin looked away. Maybe he would be seeing Jane Hudson again after all.

SATELLITE TELESCOPE

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Preliminary studies have begun for launching a large satellite carrying a telescope.

The orbiting telescope will make observations of the stars and planets, with the information relayed to earth by radio or television channels. The space telescope could make studies that are impossible with land-based instruments because light and radio waves are distorted by the earth's atmosphere.

CUSTOMERS HELP

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Customers have come to the aid of restaurant owner Raymond Woods, who has a wife and eight children, recently underwent his 11th operation. Insurance companies dropped him long ago.

C.L. Birdsell, one of his many customers, hung a dollar bill on a wire over the counter. Since then many customers have followed suit in an effort to defray Woods' expenses.

FAR NORTH FESTIVAL

Youngster, bundled up in parka and muffler, watches festivities.

Spectators line snow-covered street in The Pas to watch start of 15-mile freight dog race. Each sled is loaded with three building blocks and 120-pound sack of flour.

Tea-brewing contestants keep their "pots" a-boiling. Each man has to cut wood, make a fire, melt snow, boil water, then brew tea. First producer of tea is winner.

Winter is harsh and long in Northern Manitoba. Icy winds sweep the broad plains, temperatures plummet to far below zero, and snow lies deep on the land. But it does not mean complete isolation for the hardy woodsmen, trappers and Indians who live in that part of the Canadian province.

Each year, when winter is at its peak, they leave their huts and cabins and converge on The Pas for the Trappers' Festival, using dog sled, or other means of conveyance, to get to the festive town. Some travel as far as 400 miles. Even blizzards can't stop the festival from going on, or the people from getting there.

The festival lasts three full days. The main event is the world's championship dog derby, a grueling race of three 50-mile heats for sled dogs and their drivers. Other events to keep the visitors and participants in a happy mood are competitions for muskrat skinning, tea brewing contests, bannock making, foot races, music, and dancing in the street. It is one of the big yearly events of the Far North.

Snow-covered street is converted into a dance floor.

In muskrat-skinning competition, prizes were awarded for best job of skinning and cleaning the fur-bearing animals.

Dogs lie exhausted in the snow after finishing the freight dog sled race.

New York Stock Market

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Stocks, motors and aircraft-missiles rose as a churning stock market moved ahead on balance in heavy trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 30 stocks at noon was up .50 at 234.00 with industrials up 1.40 rails up .10 and utilities down .10.

Gains of fractions to about a point among key stocks outnumbered losers. A few stocks took sharp losses.

The rise was a ragged affair featured by bursts of very active trading.

Attention to fighting the recession was focused by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg's estimate that three million more Americans will suffer long-term unemployment in the next 18 months and his plea that Congress pass President Kennedy's bill to extend jobless benefits. The anti-recession theme continued to have an inflationary ring in Wall Street's ears.

Oils, utilities, and chemicals were mixed. Electrical equipments declined. Tobacco and drugs advanced.

General Electric lost a point and Westinghouse a fraction. Kayser-Roth dropped more than 2 and Polaroid about 5. Boeing and Martin were up close to a point each.

The crash of the Sabena Belgian Airlines Boeing 707 seemed to have no immediate effect on Boeing.

Gains of a point or so were made by International Harvester, U.S. Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, and Republic Steel.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.62 at 646.53.

Volume in the first two hours was 1.96 million shares.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds were narrowly mixed.

HISTORY REPEATS—The sneak attack on Pearl Harbor 19 years ago is the climactic scene in the film, "The Storm of the Pacific," attracting big audiences in Japan. The Dec. 7, 1941 raid was reproduced with models in a Tokyo studio. For air and sea combat scenes, 1,000 model planes and 500 model ships were needed, along with several tons of gelatin dessert to produce the effect of ocean waves seen from the air.

Adlai Calls For Rally Behind UN

Adlai Stevenson, former U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, called for a "rally behind the United Nations" in a speech to the American People's Forum in New York City.

Stevenson said the United Nations is the only organization that can bring about peace and stability in the world. He urged Americans to support the United Nations and to work for peace.

Puerto Rican Admits Killing 3 Women In Jealous Rage

NEW YORK (AP) — Pedro Arroyo, a mustachioed Puerto Rican dandy from Harlem admitted to police Tuesday that he killed three extramarital girl friends in quick succession during a wild outburst of jealous rage. Two of them were strangled in the same bed, where their bodies were found side by side.

"I thought they were cheating on me," detectives quoted Arroyo, 32, as saying. He reportedly has a wife either in his native Puerto Rico or California.

Two of the slain women had illegitimate children by Arroyo, and he saw to the safety of the tots in the midst of his homicidal spree.

The third victim was a teenage target of the stubby killer's amorous attentions.

Arroyo was charged with homicide and held without bail. He has a prison record as a strong-arm man.

The first slaying victim was Catalina Brown, 26, with whom Arroyo had been living in a three-room tenement apartment on E. 117th St. The section in Harlem is populated mainly by Puerto Ricans, Cubans and others of Spanish-speaking ancestry.

Arroyo was quoted as saying he and the Brown woman got into an argument in bed before dawn Monday, when he accused her of seeing other men. He claimed she admitted cheating, whereupon he strangled her with a strip torn from a sheet.

Arroyo took to the streets where he accidentally ran across Candida Caquilas, 33, who had predated the Brown woman as his mistress. He took her to the apartment where the sight of the other woman's body apparently failed to shake her.

Against a quarrel ensued, during which the Caquilas woman was said to have admitted love affairs with other men. This time the stranger said he used bare hands.

In between the slayings, Arroyo dressed his two daughters and took them to his mother. The children were Ursula, 3, by the Brown woman in an earlier affair; and Sandra, 1, offspring of the liaison with the Caquilas woman.

In the afternoon, Arroyo waited at the apartment of Margarita Sierra, 16, until she got home from school. Then he took her to a Spanish-language movie.

After the movie, Arroyo took the girl to the roof of her apartment. There he accused her, too, of seeing other men. Although she denied it, she was shot in the head and her body propped in a sitting position against a wall.

Residents of the building heard the shot and, investigating, found the body. Police picked up Arroyo about 10:30 p.m. after finding an autographed picture of him in the Sierra girl's apartment.

Is Kennedy Best Dressed Since Washington?

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Is President Kennedy the best dressed chief executive since George Washington?

Movie stylist Sy Devore not only thinks so but believes the youthful president will revolutionize formal wear.

"No one in our time—save the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales—will be more of a style setter than Mr. Kennedy," Devore said today.

The President's taste in clothes is conservative but always correct, said Devore, who designs wardrobes for many Hollywood fashion plates.

Devore believes the President's greatest sartorial influence will be where it's needed most—on the youth.

"Too many of the young people have reduced casualness to sloppiness," Devore said. "Mr. Kennedy has had great political impact on youth. I think his clothes will have a similar influence."

The President wears sports clothes only for weekend or country wear, Devore said. On the job, his jackets and trousers match.

The President is a "well-dressed man of the world," Devore said, and there is little chance he will be influenced by the Hollywood trend in men's fashions.

Western Alarm Mounts

Mobutu or see the vast territory go to the Communists by default.

President Nasser's official Arab Republic Tuesday night officially recognized Giza's regime as the legal government of the Congo. Red China quickly lined up.

Premier Chou En-lai cabled Giza: "The Chinese people are deeply convinced that the Congo people will surely turn their grief into strength and, under the leadership of your excellency, will fight to the end against the imperialist bloc headed by the United States of America and in defense of the national independence of the Congo."

Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah, always a supporter of Lumumba, lashed the United Nations for the role it played in the Congo and added: "The danger in the Congo is not so much the possibility of a civil war between Africans, but rather a colonialist war in which the colonial and imperialist powers hide behind African puppet regimes."

U.S. officials were reported counting heavily on dozens of the smaller nations—particularly in Africa—to rally to the defense of the United Nations. This hope was bolstered by India's ambassador to Washington, M. C. Chagla, who said his government favors strengthening the United Nations because "it is only as the United Nations is effective that we will prevent civil war."

Tunisia's government radio attacked the Soviet action in the new Congo crisis, calling it "dangerous" and "risking creation of a new Korea."

Observers in Cairo predicted heavy pressure on Sudanese Premier Ibrahim Abboud to allow planes carrying arms and other supplies from the Communists and the U.A.R. to Stanleyville to make the necessary refueling stop in the Sudan.

Many observers in Cairo believe the Soviet Union is geared for a big arms supply program to Stanleyville. Mysterious Soviet vessels recently have slipped unannounced through the Suez Canal reportedly carrying arms and explosives. There have been signs of increased Soviet arms deliveries to Egypt itself, indicating the Soviet might be using Cairo as an arms depot.

Convicted Rapist To Pay Supreme Penalty Friday

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Ronald Lee Wolfe, convicted of raping an 8-year-old girl after luring her from a church carnival, must die in Missouri's gas chamber early Friday—being a last minute stay of execution.

The Missouri Supreme Court declined Monday to rehear his case or stay the execution, set for one minute after midnight.

Gov. John M. Dalton said he would look into the case. He could commute the sentence.

In St. Louis, Wolfe's attorney, James B. Herd, indicated an appeal might be carried to the United States Supreme Court.

Wolfe was convicted of raping the girl Oct. 18, 1959, after enticing her away from a church carnival at Troy, Mo., with a candy bar. He was captured the next day at Hannibal, four days after his release from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

The trial judge castigated him as a confirmed criminal who deserved no leniency. The state supreme court concurred.

U.S. Skating Team Wiped Out

Beach, Calif.; Douglas Ramsey, Detroit; Ray and Ila Rae Hadley, Seattle; Larry Pierce, Indianapolis; and Bob and Pat Dineen, New York.

Debris from the terribly twisted Boeing was scattered for several hundred yards.

The nightmare evolved from Sabena's Flight 548 from New York, piloted by Cmdr. Louis Lambrecht.

Residents of the seacoast village of Berg figured something might be wrong when the airliner sped over them for its approach to the airport. The engine roar changed oddly and the flight pattern looked erratic.

The plane circled the field a time or two. It lowered the undercarriage, retracted it, turned again and fell.

"Suddenly the plane fell in a series of spins," an airport official said. "It literally disintegrated."

There was a tremendous explosion.

On a Liege-Brussels express train skirting the airport many passengers saw the disaster. Said one:

"The plane appeared to be making a normal approach to land when, on nearing the ground, it suddenly reared up pointing almost vertically, nose up into the sky. Then it fell back like a giant stone and we heard an explosion."

From her home near the crash scene, Mrs. M. Croon said the plane was "making much more noise and was much lower than they usually are."

Francis de Kieckmaeker, a coal merchant, said it dropped "just like in wartime when planes fell after being hit."

Viscountess Pierre de Boilely was on her doorstep.

"The plane was making an unusual noise," she said. "It was flying extremely low. I saw it balancing in the sky then, as it flew over a small nearby wood, it seemed to recover power and pointed upwards and then it suddenly fell. It looked as if the pilot had made a desperate effort not to hit the tower but shortly before the crash 'we lost contact.'"

An airport officer said clothes were burned off passengers in the forward cabin.

"It all took place at a terrifying speed," he said. "We saw the crash coming, it looked as if the plane's controls had been lost completely."

A state policeman said he saw pieces of aluminum melting like butter.

Amid the mud and mire lay plane fragments, an engine half buried, twisted pieces of pipes and cables, arms and legs protruding from the tangled mass.

The control tower commander said the plane had been in touch with the tower but shortly before the crash "we lost contact."

"The plane circled two or three times normally as a Caravelle jet was just taking off," he said. "All seemed all right then suddenly we realized something was going wrong. There were no more contacts. The plane appeared out of control. It fell like a bomb."

Boeing, the plane's builders, said this was the first 707 crash involving a passenger fatality among 12.12 million passengers carried.

Sabena Belgian Airlines, owned by the government, is one of several European lines that operate American-built jets.

A Sabena spokesman said positive identification of the bodies would be difficult.

Officials found the plane's flight recorder instrument and took charge of its tape.

The airport commander said it might take six months to establish the cause of the crash.

Urges Swift OK Of Measure To Assist Jobless

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg estimated today that three million more Americans will suffer long-term unemployment in the next 18 months and urged Congress to pass swiftly President Kennedy's bill to extend jobless benefits.

Goldberg testified before the House Ways and Means Committee as the administration opened its drive for enactment of its economic package. The measure picked for that effort is the one generally considered to have the least opposition. It would provide federal funds for extension, up to 13 weeks, of unemployment benefits to those who have used up their rights under existing law.

As the hearing got under way the Republicans ran up new alarms for the whole program, assailing what they called "Democratic gloom- and- doom distortions."

The GOP national committee publication "Battle Line" labeled as a major political exaggeration a statement by House Speaker Sam Rayburn that the need to do something about unemployment is "the most urgent since the Great Depression."

The publication said that while unemployment is serious in a few areas, the state of the economy is generally sound.

Goldberg, who recently completed a tour of some of the hardest-hit unemployment areas, told the committee he had seen at first hand what he called the destructive effects of unemployment, not only on the jobless themselves but on "the economic health of our communities and the nation."

"This (unemployment compensation) program will quickly get into circulation almost a billion dollars of purchasing power. It is the necessities of life," Goldberg said, adding that the money would go out quickly to a large number of people and therefore "be most beneficial to our economy."

Mitchell Resigns As Head Of Rail Study Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — James P. Mitchell, former secretary of labor, resigned Tuesday as chairman of the commission studying railroad work rules.

In a letter to President Kennedy, Mitchell said he did not have time to serve in the post and at the same time fulfill responsibilities as a Republican candidate for nomination for governor of New Jersey.

Finding a replacement for Mitchell as head of the 21-man study group will be a task for Kennedy in consultation with the disputing railroads and rail unions.

The commission, made up of representatives of the railroads, five unions and the public, was created by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to examine contentions by management that unnecessary jobs and payments for work not done are forced by union demands. The unions dispute the management view.

The study is to take a year or more. However, there are indications the group intends to try to mediate the problem, or work out a compromise.

SAYS KENNEDY SEEKS TO AVOID 'SELF DECEPTION'

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nevada, said Tuesday President Kennedy is trying "to avoid the danger of self deception" in warning of the growing strength of Russia and the weakened domestic economy of the United States.

Cannon told a legislative dinner of the Illinois Veterans of Foreign Wars that Kennedy "is not downgrading America, as some participants are saying."

Instead, the senator said, Kennedy "is trying to avoid the danger of self deception and working to arouse the country to the efforts and sacrifices that will be necessary" in the years ahead.

Cannon shared the speaker's role with Gov. Otto Kerner.

JACK COOGAN CASE DELAYED

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — Actor Jack Coogan's preliminary hearing on a narcotics charge will be delayed until March 1 because another case took precedence—a case of the mumps.

The hearing which started last week, was postponed when it was reported that Coogan had the mumps.

TO HOLD HEARING On Air Service Case May 9

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board announced today that a further hearing on a phase of the Oklahoma-Kansas air service case will be held in Springfield, Mo., May 9.

The place and date were in a report on a recent pre-hearing conference before examiner Merritt Ruhlen. The report was made public today. Ruhlen will preside at the Springfield hearing.

Among issues involved is an application of Ozark Air Lines, to extend to Tulsa, Okla., its local service route between St. Louis and Joplin by way of Jefferson City, Columbia and Springfield, and of Central Airlines to operate between Joplin and St. Louis by way of Springfield.

The board several weeks ago awarded the St. Louis-Springfield-Joplin route to Central. Ozark asked reconsideration.

The board granted the request for reconsideration and said it would hear further testimony on several issues involved in the Missouri route—which was part of the Oklahoma-Kansas area service case.

VALENTINE FOR MILEKMAN

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Like a lot of other people, 8-year-old Becky Owens got the Valentine's Day spirit.

As a result, her mother's note to the milkman, decorated with a arrow-pierced heart, read:

"Half gallons, 2 quarts chocolate, I love you."

Mrs. Owens spotted the note in the milk bottle and retrieved it before the milkman arrived Tuesday.

Logging Camp Boat Vanishes; 7 Men Missing

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — A storm Tuesday in the island-dotted strait of Georgia stalled aid and sea search for a 40-foot logging camp boat that vanished with eight Canadians under unexplained circumstances. The body of one man was found; seven are missing.

"We're now sure a bad accident has happened," said a Canadian official directing the hunt for the camp tender Green Valley which left a remote logging camp 40 miles north of here Monday morning for a 15-mile trip to Pender Harbor, B. C.

Weather then was clear and calm.

Communications trouble at the logging camp delayed word of the Green Valley's disappearance and at first discovery of one body was not linked to the missing boat.

Four search planes and a flotilla of small ships were driven to cover at mid-day as gale winds struck the strait between Vancouver Island and the British Columbia mainland. The storm forced suspension of the hunt, probably until Wednesday.

Dillon Calls For Ratification Of 20-Nation Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon testified Tuesday "it would be a lethal blow" to economic cooperation between this country and Western Europe if the Senate refuses to ratify a 20-nation agreement he helped write.

Both Dillon and George Ball, undersecretary of state for economic affairs, said the body set up in Paris Dec. 14 under the pact—the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development—can't begin to operate without the United States as a member.

The two took note of growing opposition from some U.S. trade groups which apparently fear foreign competition. They assured the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that OECD would in no way infringe on U.S. domestic law or the tariff-making powers of Congress.

The OECD convention was drawn up with Dillon's help when he held in the Eisenhower administration the same job Ball now holds. The pact is between the United States and Canada and 18 Western European nations. Its aim is to help solve mutual economic problems.

The pact was submitted to Congress Jan. 17 by then President Dwight D. Eisenhower. President Kennedy urged in his State of the Union message that Congress quickly ratify it.

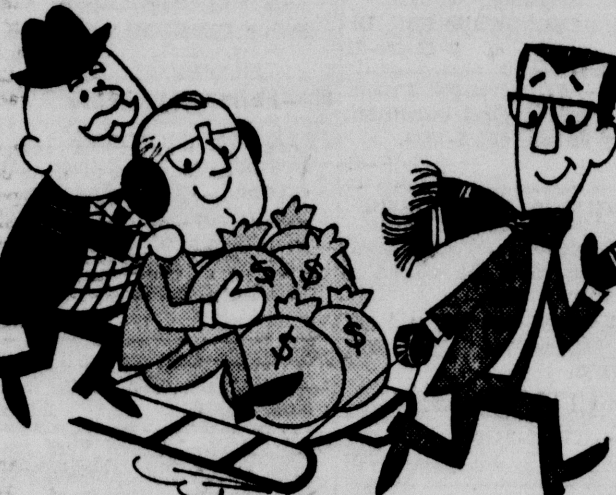

The committee chairman at Tuesday's hearing, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said 30 to 40 communications had been received opposing the convention and only one or two supporting it.

Much of the opposition, he said, has come from glass and ceramic companies and labor unions in that field.

Dillon said the opposition was based on mistaken fears that OECD would be able to make binding decisions.

Kennedy Reviews Job Situation, Sec. Goldberg Calls It Critical

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy reviewed unemployment and economic problems at an hour-long conference Tuesday with top administration leaders.

The White House reported Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg "viewed the situation as critical" and said Kennedy is anxious to combat the problem.

Goldberg reported on an unemployment survey he made in five industrial states last weekend. He plans another tour soon.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., talking with newsmen after the White House session, said Goldberg "found the situation worse than he had expected."

Rayburn said Kennedy will have something to say about the problem at his news conference Wednesday night. The session will be broadcast live on radio and television networks starting at 7 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Rather than proposing new solutions, Rayburn said he looks for Kennedy to call for swift congressional action on proposals already submitted. Noting that the Republicans only Monday had completed their committee assignments, Rayburn said "Congress will move ahead just as fast as it can."

Space Agency Bans Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The space agency has banned newsmen from Wallops Island, Va., this week for what may be the first U. S. satellite launching outside Florida and California.

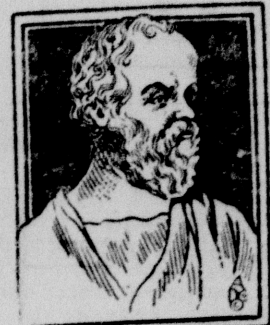

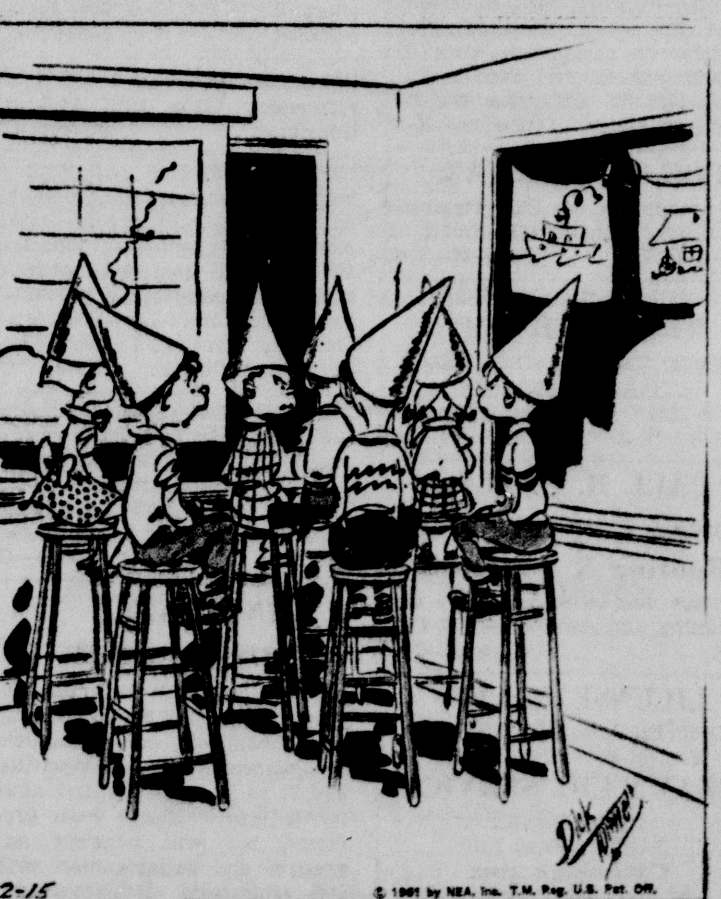

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration refused requests from newsmen and television crews for the same privileges they had during a launch attempt last Dec. 4.

These privileges consisted primarily of a favorable observation point, handy telephone facilities and access to the preliminary count-down. The count-down keeps watchers informed of the probable launching time.

The December test of the four-stage, all-solid propellant Scout launching vehicle was unsuccessful. As in the forthcoming Scout test, a successful launch would have placed a 12-foot diameter, 15-pound Echo-type balloon in an orbit 400 to 1,400 miles above the earth.

Chas. McGath's Body Recovered In River Where 3 Drowned

The body of Charles Nathan McGath, 29, one of three Jacksonville young men drowned on an off-fated duck hunting trip on November 29th, was found floating against the ice Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock one-fourth mile south of the Clarksville, Mo., dam in the Mississippi River. The body was found on the Missouri side of the big river.

Paul Spangler and his son, Gene, both commercial fishermen, discovered the body and notified Pike County (Missouri) authorities who made the identification from papers found in McGath's pockets.

Edgar Roegges Will Celebrate 40th Anniversary

VIRGINIA—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roegges, of Jacksonville, R. 1, will observe their 40th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Feb. 19, with a family dinner at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roegges were married February 22, 1921, in Jacksonville, by Rev. J. G. Kuppler. They are the parents of five children: John Roegges, Timewell; Mrs. Lucille Mason, Jacksonville; Mrs. Esther Snelling, Beardstown; Mrs. Jean Harrison and Mrs. Rosalie Miller, of Virginia. The couple also have eleven grandchildren.

Mrs. Frances Dodds and Miss Ruth Gustafson were at a meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma, Saturday afternoon at Hamilton's restaurant, in Jacksonville. Mrs. Bernice Rutherford, president, of Waverly, presided over the business meeting. A film was shown on Communist China.

Ryan Addresses Exchange Club On Crime Trend

State's Attorney Charles Ryan spoke to the Exchange Club members Monday evening in conjunction with National Crime Prevention Week, Feb. 13 to Feb. 20.

Ryan gave his views on crime prevention and told of the duties of his office. "Crime prevention involves many similar problems across the country which authorities are trying to cope with," he stated. The speaker recommended "Crime Incorporated in the United States," booklet published by the federal government, for study and reference. It explains the numerous problems faced by law enforcement officers. Explained were present day crime prevention methods, rehabilitation and punishment techniques now being used across the country in dealing with crime.

President Roger Olson presided at the meeting and Larry Omundson, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

One new member, Stewart Whitmore, was introduced to the group.

Mary Jane Kruse Sweetheart Queen At Virginia High

VIRGINIA—The annual F.H.A. Sweetheart Dance was held Saturday night, Feb. 11, at the Virginia High School. Mary Jane Kruse was chosen 1961 Sweetheart Queen and was crowned by last year's queen, Jean Booth. Mary Jane is presently the F.H.A. queen.

Miss Judy Davis was mistress of ceremonies.

The court and their escorts were: Senior, Mary Jane Kruse, escorted by Frank Shafer; Junior, Bonnie Williams, escorted by Larry Hudson; sophomore, Sandra Hardin, escorted by Bob Cox; freshman, Sharon Booth, escorted by Roy Lyons. Attendants were: Chapter Sister Jackie Lyons and Burt Merriman.

"Music for the evening was furnished by Howie Bowe and his orchestra."

TEACHERS CIRCLE ENTERTAINED AT OBERT RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. John Obert, 235 West Chambers, entertained members and guests of the Jacksonville Teacher's Reading Circle at its last meeting. The occasion was well attended and a potluck supper was enjoyed by the group.

No book reports were given. There was a drawing for mystery pens and a white elephant gift exchange was held.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 14 at the home of Mary Rose Doyle, 627 West Lafayette avenue. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Mabel Shanahan will give a summary of a chosen book.

Virginia's World Day Of Prayer At Lutheran Church

VIRGINIA—World Day of Prayer, sponsored in the United States by United Church Women of the National Council of Churches, will be observed in Virginia on Friday, Feb. 17. At 2 p.m., a formal prayer service will be presented at Grace Lutheran church. The same program as that being used in all the services throughout the world will be used here. In response to the invitation extended to all the Protestant churches to participate in making plans the following churches responded: Christian, Methodist, Presbyterian, Sangamon Valley Presbyterian and Lutheran.

The women's organization of each church will be in charge of promoting the Day of Prayer. Singing will be led by Mrs. Franklin Watkins, with Mrs. Arthur Sweetman as organist. A special vocal number will be furnished by a group of ladies from the various churches. This group is composed of Mrs. Robert Rooker, Mrs. David Finney, Mrs. John Schaeffer, Mrs. J. G. Murphy and Mrs. Franklin Watkins.

A dramatic presentation, "With Tomorrow Yet To Come," will be presented. It is based on the theme of the service, "Forward Through the Ages." Those taking part in this drama are: Mrs. Thomas W. Johnson, Mrs. Harry Watkins, Mrs. Richard Fox, Mrs. Jack Calhoun, Mrs. Ted Harrison, Mrs. Conley Thomas, Mrs. Robert Joskisch, Mrs. Robert Stone and Mrs. Carl Smith.

All women in the community are urged to attend this special service.

Virginia News
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Peoria, visited last week with relatives and friends in this city and community. Mrs. Davis is a sister of Frank Long, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Romus Trotter and Janet, of Peoria, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunt.

Prowlers May Have Started Fire In Shed

JERSEYVILLE—A shed and contents at the Marion Beach farm, on Route 16, East of Jerseyville, were destroyed by fire at 2:25 Sunday morning. A passerby noticed the blaze and notified the city police who dispatched the Jerseyville Fire Department to the site. It is not known the origin of the blaze but officers are investigating the fact it might have been started by prowlers as some drills and other articles were reported missing from the place.

150 bales of loose straw had just been put in the shed the day before which caused the fire to spread rapidly. The arrival of the fire department prevented the spread of the blaze to other buildings.

The remains were removed from a fisherman's dock at Clarksville to the Williamson Funeral home in Jacksonville.

Charles Nathan McGath was born in Jacksonville, January 30, 1931, a son of Walter and Florence Wingler McGath, both of whom survive. He married the former Freda Turner on January 14, 1956, who survives with one daughter, Candice Joann. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Edward of Jacksonville, Walter, Jr., and Robert Lee, both at home. Mrs. Cora Hacker of Whittier, Calif., Mrs. Laura Constable in Jacksonville, Mrs. Conella Reed of Quincy, and Dorothy at home. One brother, James, was with him on the hunting expedition.

For the past ten years he was employed at the Illinois Steel Bridge Company as a crane operator. He was a member of Local 557, Loyal Order of Moose and Sportsmen Club. He served with the U. S. Navy. He was a member of the Littery Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Williamson Funeral home, Rev. William J. Boston officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Lawn cemetery. The family will meet friends from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Miss Lackman Of Greenfield Dies; Funeral Friday

GREENFIELD—Miss Rosa M. Lackman, 81 year old long time resident of the Greenfield vicinity, died at 8:10 a.m. Wednesday at the Weatherford Nursing Home in Carlinville where she had been cared for the past two years.

Miss Lackman was born May 24, 1879 at Celestine, Ind., the last of ten children of Henry and Lena Debler Lackman. Only nieces and nephews survive.

The body was taken to Shields Memorial Home where friends may call 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday with the Rosary to be recited at 8 p.m.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a.m. Friday at St. Michael's Catholic church, where the deceased was a member. Reverend Joseph Boll will officiate and interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery.

Frank M. Taylor, who entered Memorial Hospital last Thursday, underwent an appendectomy there on Friday and is recuperating nicely.

"Sweetheart Dance" At School
The "Sweetheart Dance" of the F.H.A. of the New Berlin High School was held on Saturday evening in the community room of the high school. Red and white decorations in the Valentine motif were carried out. A huge silver heart, surrounded by cupid and hearts and highlighted with red spotlights, was the setting for the crowning of the King and Queen.

Queen Beverly Peary was crowned by King's attendant, Bob Shepherd, and King Carl Compardo was crowned by Queen's attendant, Andrea McCullough. The Queen was presented a dozen red roses, and the King an initialed wallet. The Queen's dance following the coronation, was reserved for the court. The High School Dance Band provided the very fine music for the evening.

The FFA of the high school served refreshments from a table beautifully centered with a large round heart and a cherub of a white cupid.

The court was selected from the FFA and the FFA of the high school, by vote of the entire student body.

Queen Beverly Peary is a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peary of Loomis. Her attendant, Andrea McCullough, is also a senior and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCullough of New Berlin.

King Carl (Cork) Compardo is a senior student, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Compardo of Loomis. His attendant, Bob Shepherd, is also of Loomis, is a sophomore and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd.

Miss Dorothy Antey is FFA sponsor and FFA advisor is Ed Molitoris. Chairmen in charge of FFA committees for the evening were Mary Lou Battleson, Court; Jackie Pinn, Decoration; and Ruthanne Trimble, publicity.

Nurses Sponsor Catholic Press Essay Contest

The second annual Catholic Press Month Essay Contest for seventh and eighth graders of the Springfield diocese is being sponsored during February by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses.

The contest will be conducted by the local chapters of the DCCN in each Catholic school of its area.

Competition will be against classmates in each school, with identical first place awards going to the best essay writers in both the seventh and eighth grades of each school taking part in the contest.

A diocesan-wide competition will be set up for pupils in areas where there are no Catholic schools.

Students will begin their essays with this statement: "I think that the most interesting article which I have read in The Western Catholic, including Our Sunday Visitor section, is . . . . . which appeared in the issue of (date) on page . . . . . because (complete in 100 words or less.)"

Essays will be judged on: —Originality and thought content, 40 per cent.

—Presentation, reasoning, clarity and conviction, 40 per cent.

—Paragraphing, punctuation, grammar and spelling, 20 per cent.

Catherine Murphy, diocesan president, said that the essay committee is made up of the following nurses from the Jacksonville chapter:

George Stremmel, chairman; Sister St. John, Sister Raymond Marie, Barbara Baet, Elsie Ring, Mary Magner, Mary Burmeister, Mary Fromme, Mary Curtis, Mary Kohlrus, Catherine Torricelli and Mary Lesko.

Judges will be either a committee of teachers at each school, or a board named by the local chapter. A diocesan committee will judge essays turned in by students attending public schools.

Local chapter members will contact all area schools to provide information and entry blanks. Students not attending Catholic schools may obtain the necessary material by writing: Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses, 524 E. Lawrence avenue, Springfield; or George Stremmel, care of Our Savior's hospital, Jacksonville.

Hardin High's Sweetheart Queen Julia Zipprich

HARDIN—Miss Julia Zipprich was crowned queen of the annual Valentine Sweetheart Dance Saturday night in the gym of Unit 40 High School. The dance was sponsored by the sophomore class, and the queen was crowned by Class President John Schaberg. Her escort was Bob Snyder, president of the Hardin F.F.A. chapter, which sponsored her as a candidate.

Queen candidates were selected by the various organizations in the school, and were escorted by the sponsoring group. Little Lois Ann Fuller was flower girl in the coronation ceremony, and Charles Bennett, Jr. carried the crown.

The gym was tastefully decorated for the affair, with a large heart forming the backdrop for the throne.

Members of the court, their escorts, and sponsoring organizations are as follows: Janet Ader-ton, Hal Bryant, band; Patsy Becker, Larry Rippling, drama club; Dixie Harris, David Schleeper, chorus; Sandra Lazar, Mike Davis, Echo; Alice Klunk, Larry Sievers, library club; Judy Campbell, John Peterson, Sentinel; and Barbara Eberlin, Mike Durr, F.H.A.
